

It is often said that there is no royal road to learning.

This is quite true especially for learning another language.

As we have already acquired our first language, it is not easy to learn another without making efforts in our own country.

Unlike other studies or hobbies, merely attending classes will not improve our ability.

An environment that supports learning on a daily basis is essential.

I have a passion for teaching English and am ready to share it in my classes.

I offer you the place where you can prove yourself.

I encourage you to continue learning English with joy and satisfaction and also support your ambitions.

Your ultimate pleasure in my lessons is to broaden your knowledge in a wide range of fields through English.

I have my own unconventional, ingenious methods of teaching, varied for each class level.

You will find English learning enjoyable and interesting.

Join us to experience our great passion in my classes.

Credentials: I have a Bachelor of Arts degree with an emphasis on The Study of Second Language Acquisition.

I returned to University to complete the units to qualify for my teaching certificates for senior and junior high schools.

I taught English grammar at language schools and cram schools for 10 years.

Then I started to teach English to adults as a freelancer.

I have been teaching from beginners to advanced learners for 17 years since.
